

Biography

---

Kevin Riggs, Emmy-award winning reporter and broadcast news anchor

Mr. Riggs has been recognized among California's top political journalists during a career that spanned four decades. In this capacity, he has covered some of the world's most remarkable and influential leaders, earning a reputation for quality, fairness and professionalism. Riggs has been recognized with numerous awards for broadcast excellence including being part of the KCRA team that was awarded the 2011 Edward R. Murrow Award by the Radio Television Digital News Association for breaking news coverage of the Galleria fire. He was also awarded a Northern California Emmy for coverage of the Galleria fire and nominated for two others, including the 2010 Gubernatorial Election Debates. Riggs earned top honors for political coverage in 1996, 2000 and 2006 from the Center for California Studies at CSU Sacramento. In 1992, Riggs earned an Associated Press award for best documentary at his alma mater, Cal Poly San Luis Obispo.